

Teachers Supporting Teachers Through the Power of PVAAS

Audience: Teachers who support teachers in academic content areas assessed by state assessments, including roles such as: Instructional Coaches/Facilitators, Department Chairs/Content Leaders.

NOTE: This session is specifically for teachers who support teachers in schools.

Part 1: Half Day Videoconference Sessions Broadcast to Carbon Lehigh IU

September 28, 2015

Either 8:30 - 11:30 OR 12:30 - 3:30

Session Focus: The focus of the session will be to extend your knowledge of PVAAS reports and enhance your understanding of how to use PVAAS reports in the role of coach, to ultimately improve student results through focused and targeted support to teachers. The session will address systems-level support as well as grade level, subject level, and teacher level support. The initial videoconference session will focus on how to use PVAAS in your role to support core academic programs with school-wide supports, as well as data on identifying students who are at risk and foundational information to support teachers who receive PVAAS teacher specific reporting.

Three follow-up webinars will then focus on how to use PVAAS in other roles you have, to identify students in need of interventions and enrichments, to support teachers with teacher specific reporting, and to evaluate the effectiveness of interventions and enrichments.

Each participant should bring a laptop or tablet with internet access, if s/he wishes to access session materials online.
