- History of Disability Rights- The journey of how we made it to where we are today!
- Self-Advocacy- Speak up for yourself and make your own decisions! Learn how to apply your newly acquired transition information.
- Anti-bullying- Bullying can happen to anyone anywhere. Get information that you need to prevent this from happening.
- Project A.B.L.E.®(Disability Awareness)-An interactive training examining the common misconceptions and stereotypes for individuals with various disabilities.
- "I Am Who I Am" (Disclosure)- Information on how and when to inform an employer or school of your disability.
- "Standing on My Own Two Feet"- Learn information on how to face reality, take responsibility, and become "more comfortable in your own skin."

These trainings are perfect for youth in transition programming and young adults heading out on their own. Most of our trainings are created FOR youth BY youth, and are available for the classroom, auditorium or whatever fits into the curriculum!
