

Horseback Riding

Equi-librium — Day

Located in Nazareth, PA

With a professional staff and trusted team of horses, this beautiful facility offers several different riding and carriage driving programs to help individuals with special needs reach their highest potential through horse-related activities. Equi-librium offers Hippotherapy sessions on Mondays from 9 AM—5 PM, depending on the schedule and availability of the therapists. Half day summer camp sessions are inclusive—siblings and friends can come, too. Schedule includes riding, horsemanship activities, arts and crafts and refreshments. Camp is broken up by the camper's age. For more information, please visit www.equi-librium.org or call 610-365-2266.

Horses and Horizons — Day

Located in New Ringold, PA

Group and private therapeutic riding for children and adults with disabilities. For group lessons (8-week sessions) riders must be physically able to help groom and saddle the horse. Private lessons are for riders who are unable physically or emotionally to participate in horse preparation. The entire lesson is spent on the horse. Call 570-386-5679 or visit www.horsesandhorizons.org for more information.

Horses 4 Hope Equestrian Center

Located in Bloomsbury, NJ

This nonprofit organization gives kids a chance to ride and to learn all about the fascinating world of horses. The center works with beginners as well as experienced riders. Classes also available for special needs. Facility is licensed as a therapeutic riding center. For more information, call 610-674-0159 or visit www.horses-4-hope.info

Iron Gate Farm - Day

Located in Bangor, PA

Classes in jumping and dressage. Principles of dressage applied to all disciplines. Equine assisted therapy offered on a private basis, starting at age 2. Instructor's attention is given to one rider at a time. An "IEP on Horseback" is created based on the child's needs and goals. Therapeutic riding students take the reigns and learn how to ride. Opportunities to ride with typically developing peers. FSS funding accepted. Iron Gate is available for summer camp and birthday parties.
